

Our company work in converting , printing of flexible packaging and packaging materials using new machinery and modern methods of technology with highest level of quality, integrity, safety to maximum possible productivity at affordable prices to customer satisfaction and expectation , taking into account to maintain environmental , health and safety of workers...

And the top management ensures responsibilities to implementation, maintenance and continual improvement system through:

- 1- The company commitment with safety, quality and integrity of their products to customer satisfaction through manufacturing healthy and highly quality products.
- 2- The company commitment to manufacture products compliance with relevant legislative ,health, National ,customer requirements and according to specification standards in addition Abide by the laws and regulations of the exporting countries.
- 3- The company commitment to comply with all laws and international legislation and other applicable requirements regarding safety , environmental , business integrity quilty , Of workers , visitors , contractors with respect to our ethical policy.
- 4- The company commitment to continual evaluation and assessment of their suppliers covering all requirements for products safety, legality and quality.
- 5- The company commitment to implement the all requirement of international standards which the company have it permanently .
- 6- Working as a team and continual , appropriately training to all staff levels and activities to increase efficiency and awareness through implementation of best manufacturing and hygienic practices, in addition maintain environmental , health and safety of workers, and decrease the loss of materials and non conformity products through implementation of global standards of packaging and packaging materials, quality, environmental, health and safety systems .
- 7- The company commitment to customer satisfaction and their expectation with less impact on their products , environment , the safety and health of workers
- 8- Take the necessary measures to prevent pollution of air, water and land rights and reduce wastage and rationalization of resources including internal and external issues related to activities and working on reduction the impact of climate change and biodiversity rights .
- 9- The company commitment to take the necessary actions and procedures to prevent injuries, accident ,occupational diseases resulting from existing activities and related services according to the existing and required control also on neighboring ,contractors, services, and visitors to company to reduce and eliminate the propable hazards .
- 10- The company commitment to reduce pollution and loss prevention of production process also undertaken waste disposal and management according to legal control measures with no impact on environment .
- 11- The company commitment to continual improvement to integrated system and establish of targets ,programmes that required for improvement and development
- 12- Periodically review of targets of integrated systems and ethical programs through management review
- 13- The policy distributed to all relevant staff and reviewed periodically.
- 14- Declare the policy to all employees,visitors,contractors and others interested parties...
- 15- The commitment to privacy and data security including storage , transportations , distributions , feedback , to use in necessary time and to be available when required , and organize the use of that information with respect to the applicable laws and specific standards .
- 16- The commitment to achieve and implementation of the interested parties inside and outside the company with continual review .
- 17- The commitment to participate and consultant of the workers with all relevant skeleton and workers representations in all safety , environmental risks and take the rights decision to excute it
- 18- The commitment to review all internal and external issues that impact on integrated system and its control measures periodically in related to risk assessment and its opportunities.
- 19- The company commitment to continual hazard and risk assessment to product quality & safety ,working environment, workers health and safety and ensure that there is no deviation from legal criteria and take appropriate action towards and deviations and reviewed periodically

Signature

Dr/ Mohamed Rashad Ghitany
MD & Mangement Represntative

Document Control Department